Will Gadd was the first person to climb a frozen Niagara Falls, and that's just one recent adventure in a wildly successful career spanning more than 30 years of high adventure from Africa to Greenland. Will speaks on the topics he lives daily: excellence, managing risk, resiliency, and seizing opportunity. His entertaining and professional presentations are based on his successful career as an athlete, entrepreneur, author, and dad. Based in Canmore, Will has a lifetime of inspirational stories and has spoken to more than 200 organizations around the globe. Funny and charismatic, Will will speak to us about:

“ADVENTUROUS LIVING: LESSONS LEARNED WHILE CHASING RISKY DREAMS.”
